The Flywheel Effect

Belnap Family Census

Moroni 6:4 (rephrased)

"And after they had been received [by birth or marriage into the family], they were numbered among the people of [Gilbert's posterity]; and their names were taken, that they might be remembered and nourished by the good [efforts of their relatives], to keep them in the right way, to keep them continually watchful unto [the remembering of their heritage and the covenant blessings made to their forefathers and mothers]."

FAMILY STATISTICS

Gilbert Belnap Descendants (by Generation)

The first three generations from Gilbert Belnap are now CLOSED (meaning no new additions/births are possible) and also TERMINATED (meaning all members of that generation have passed away). The fourth generation from Gilbert, i.e., his great grandchildren's generation, is now CLOSED (it is no longer possible for more great grandchildren to be born) but is still NOT TERMINATED (members of this generation are still living—although rapidly fewer and fewer). Based on available family records, it appears that members of the fifth and sixth generations from Gilbert are reaching middle age and have ceased, or will soon cease, having additional children, which will impact the final size of the succeeding generations. The fifth generation is now believed to be CLOSED (no new additions are possible unless there should be an "octogenarian" birth event or late adoption) although the sixth generation is still OPEN (members can be and/or are still being added even though some members. i.e., infants, have already passed away). Note that the "birth ranges" and "death ranges" of each succeeding generation continue to widen as older and later born children have children over an increasing range of years—naturally, later born children will likely have children born in later years than their older siblings. At some point, it will be possible for an entire generation level in one branch of the family to come and go before the same generation level in another branch of the family starts to arrive. Interesting!
