

MINUTES OF THE BELNAP FAMILY ORGANIZATION
OFFICERS MEETING

HELD AT 7:00 p.m. 17 JUNE 1970 AT THE HOME OF GORDON BELNAP

ATTENDEES: Wendell T. Belnap, Richard D. Belnap, Gordon L. Belnap, Della A. Belnap, Joy M. Belnap and Evelyn B. Galloway. H. Austin Belnap and Helene K. Smith were excused.

OPENING PRAYER: Della A. Belnap

Gordon Belnap conducted the meeting in the absence of Austin Belnap. Minutes were read and approved by Joy M. Belnap. Gordon reported as yet he has received no answer from Bruce E. Belnap regarding the movies of past reunions belonging to H. Earl Belnap, his father.

Della Belnap reported that Edith Ward had called her regarding the punch to order - 20 gallons instead of 15. She will put the announcement in the Roy paper of the Belnap Reunion. Della will put it in the Ogden paper.

Richard explained the registration to Wendell. He has had name tags with the Belnap Coat of Arms printed on them for each person to put on as they register. Richard reported on contacting family representatives to bring a display to the reunion. All but the families of Mary, Oliver, Isadora (?) have been contacted. Gordon is anxious to get this information so the tour sheet can be compiled. The program and workshop were discussed. Helene K. Smith, the Historian, will not be at the reunion. Richard will pick up the records from her and bring them to the reunion with him. The personal assignments of those present were reviewed and discussed.

Evelyn Galloway read through the program outlined. Kenneth VanderDoes will be the Master of Ceremonies. All 63 living grandchildren will be honored by giving them a red or white carnation. The past presidents will be given a token also. The oldest grandson and granddaughter will be presented with a book.

Richard read the letter from Dr. W. Dean Belnap regarding his findings in England about the Belnap Coat of Arms.

CLOSING PRAYER: Evelyn B. Galloway
