

THE VICE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES—Vice President Alben W. Barkley was presented a copy of the Book of Mormon by Elder Ray Sherwood and Elder Donald E. Belnap at Greenville, N. C., recently. He expressed his appreciation in having the book as it would help him in his address at the unveiling of the Brigham Young statue in June in Washington, D. C.

ELDERS

Continued from Page 10

clever program was presented by the Evergreen Ward elders which included demonstrations of popular square dance routines. Afterwards the entire party participated in the old time dances.

A stirring message was delivered to the elders at the convention session Sunday afternoon by Pres. Creed Haymond, recent president of the Northern States Mission. He admonished the elders to keep the commandments of the Church and to further missionary activities and service among their own quorum members.

President Gunderson also addressed the convention which was held in the Grandview Ward chapel.

Directing the affair was a committee composed of a mem-

Vice President Barkley Accepts Book of Mormon

WHILE ATTENDING a Democratic rally and banquet at Greenville, North Carolina, Vice President Alben W. Barkley was interviewed by Elder Ray Sherwood of Phoenix, Arizona, and Elder Donald E. Bel-nap of Ogden, Utah, missionaries of the Central Atlantic States Mission. On this occasion they presented the vice president of the United States with a copy of the Book of Mormon. In response to an invitation they attended this popular function at the Eastern Carolina Teachers College along with 2000 students of the college.

President Barkley stated that he had been asked to speak at the unveiling ceremony of the Brigham Young statue in the nation's Capitol in Washington, D. C. and that he appreciated having the Book of Mormon, as it would help him in preparing for the occasion. There are more than one thousand elders in the stake.

ber of the presidency from each each of 13 quorums. Four members of the East Mill Creek Stake high council were also members of the committee and included Tom Neff, Stephen C. Richards, W. W. Caldwell, and Wayne Dudley.

Elders Present Texas Techn

LUBBOCK, TEXAS—Received an invitation to speak at a class, "The Science of Religion," was to study all religions. They had made a study of them they were taking the difference was very blessed to present Christ of Latter-day Saints.

I was introduced to a class. Little. I took up the origin of its contents. Words seemed trouble in telling them of a wonderful book. I talked of the Holy Ghost was with the class to questions which subject imaginable. I summarized close by saying, "I think I go around," to see what they prize every one in the class.

Professor Little and I with their compliments. They will never find young men belief than these." Need I say

A few weeks later, with the thrill of the whole affair. Visitors who had heard us lecture, she became very interested. Her daughter had come home and you could have been there missionaries; you would have church and that they were

'Some Shall See But God Will

NORTHAMPTON, England—Six months ago, a young missionary Owen Andrus, delivered his message here in Northampton. He spent time. Two visits followed, low for a comprehensive study. Before Elder Andrus departed, he presented a Book of Mormon to Roughton, a Book of Mormon heard of him.

Six months ago we had a daughter answered the door and mother whether or not she mother told her daughter touched the heart of Mrs. Roughton, a quarter of a mind and had us invited in visits to her home in which sent.

At our recent baptism in the District, Mrs. Roughton, her son, Derek William, and her son, Derek William, members of the Church—all baptized. Elder Andrus, a quarter of a

Scooter Helps Things Going

LANGLEY PRAIRIE, BRITISH COLUMBIA—A motor scooter loaned to Campbell, we have been at Schools going and hold cottages in lower Fraser Valley here this winter. Inasmuch as the to travel, it caused consid-