Tombstone Inscriptions

OLD CEMETERY AT WRIGHT'S CORNERS, WYOMING COUNTY
North of the Village of Wyoming

This is an abandoned cemetery, overgrown with weeds, and many inscriptions cannot be read.

The weather is taking inscriptions from many stones in many places, and records like these emphasize the necessity of copying inscriptions today.

Silence, my friends, your weeping eyes,
Beneath this stone my body lies.
My country's freedom to maintain,
I fought and at Black Rock was slain,
But death the level, time the line,
And plumb of Justice hath combined
To fit me for the blest divine.
Now my pain shall be my gain,
My hope in God doth still remain,
Through Christ for my salvation.
