been made him for the robbery and trespass and prayed that this commission be revoked and it is revoked.*
- Oct. 6. Commission to Thomas de Skalariis the younger, John de Blomville and Westminster. Thomas Phelip, on representations made to the king on behalf of the men of Royston and the vicinage that, inasmuch as the town is situated in the counties of Hertford and Cambridge, breaches of the statute of Northampton are there committed daily by persons who escape arrest by fleeing into the other county when the bailiffs and ministers of one county try to attach them, and whom the bailiffs of the liberty of the prior of Royston cannot arrest on account of their number and confederacy, to keep the peace there as well in the one as the other county, within the liberty of the prior, to cause proclamation to be made to inhibit in the king's name all persons from breaking the same under the pains contained in the said statutes, and to arrest all who disregard such proclamation and imprison them in the gaol of the said town until they be delivered according to law and the custom of the realm. By C.
