Feb. 12. Commission to Roger Dalyngrugge, John de Burgh, William Threel Westminster. and John Colfin, to find by inquisition in the county of Sussex who are bound to cleanse the dyke built of old times across the port called called 'Cokemareshaven' in that county for the salvation of those parts, which has for a long time been obstructed so that very many losses have happened there by incursions of the king's enemies, compel such by distrains or otherwise to cleanse the same, and punish those who are contrariant in this matter. By C.
