MEMBRANE 12d.

Nov. 27. Commission to John Colpeper, John Hall and the sheriff and Westminster. escheator in the county of Sussex to enquire into the petition of Juliana late the wife of Robert Bealknap, 'chivaler,' that whereas Alexander de Goldyngham, 'chivaler,' by charter granted the manor of Witteryng, co. Sussex, to the said Robert and Juliana and the heirs of Robert and they continued their estate therein until it was taken into the hands of Richard II. by force of a judgement against Robert in Parliament at Westminster, the morrow of the Purification, 11 Richard II, and Robert died on 29 January, 2 Henry IV, justice may be done to her. By K.

Nov. 28. Commission to William Hankeford, Robert Hill, Roger Trewythenek, Westminster. Nicholas Bokelly, John Syreston and the sheriffs of Devon and Cornwall, on information that certain lieges of the king of the said counties were lately captured at sea by the king's enemies of Brittany and taken to Brittany and put to excessive ransoms, and some of them were detained there in prison for security of payment and some by agreement with the enemy sent to England to seek the ransoms and pay them, but these refuse to pay the ransoms or to return to Brittany according to the agreement, which will manifestly tend to the final destruction of the prisoners in Brittany, to summon all such persons of the said counties thus sent to England and induce them to pay the ransoms or to return to prison according to the agreement, and, if they refuse, to compel them by incarceration of their bodies and arrest of their goods and in case of difficulty to certify to the king and council.

Dec. 4. Commission of oyer and terminer to Hugh Holes, Thomas Bordet, Westminster. 'chivaler,' John Beauchamp, 'chivaler,' William Beauchamp of Poywyk, 'chivaler,' Roger Horton, William Boteler of Yatton and Thomas Cru, on complaint by Thomas, bishop of Worcester, that Richard Wyche, parson of the church of Tredyngton, co. Worcester, late farmer of the manor of Tredyngton, and other evildoers of divers counties and countries went to his manor and town of Tredyngton, broke his closes and houses and the doors of a dovecote and a mill of his and his fastened windows, entered by the doors and windows, carried off the windows and their iron fastenings to the house of the said Richard at Tredyngton, sealing and fastening the door of the mill with a lock (sera) of the said Richard, captured and destroyed the doves of the dovecote within the manor with nets and other engines by night, threw down a house of the bishop there and carried off timber and other goods of his, and assaulted and threatened his men, servants and tenants and Simon Colyns, his farmer there.
For 2 marks paid in the hanaper.
