

of the priesthood, I rebuke everything that is contrary to health and command, it to stand rebuked, and I pray that any irregularities in her system may be stayed. Sister Belnap thou shalt be healed and live to perform the full measure of thy creation upon this earth; thou shalt live to fulfill thy mission in honor.
I pray that all things shall be righted.

Father in heaven thou knowest the faith of this thine handmaiden and of her devotion to Thee. ^{without multiplying words up to thee, O. Father} Bless her with health and strength
