WRIGHTS' PARTY ON JANUARY 17

Frolic Advanced Month for Joseph E. Wright Who Is Going on Mission

The third annual ball, given by W. H. Wright & Son's company as a compliment to their employes, is to be held at the Berthana hall Tuesday.

held at the Berthana hall Tuesday, January 17.

This annual affair is not a dance merely, but partakes of the nature of a frolic in which the store employes and their friends become better sequainted and revive old friendships. The invitations are entirely in the hands of the store workers. Each one having a stated number of them to be sent to their special friends. The management takes no part in the inviting of guests.

The 'stunt committee,' which is looked to for the supplying of the real comedy of the evening has already begun to function. While nothing could there are rumors of a race of kiddle cars by men who weigh 200 pounds or more. A fashion show, doubtless will be one of the features of the evening in which some surprise features are promised. are promised.

The committees are all at work and the gossip about the store is that the 1922 party will be the best ever. The parties of the past two years have been parties of the past two years have been held in February, but this year it has been brought forward a month in com-pliment to Joseph E. Wright, of the firm, who will leave for England near the end of the month. Mr. Wright is going to fill a mission in the interests of the L. D. S. church. Mrs. Wright is to accompany him.

EXPLAINS DEATH OF PRIVATE IN FRANCE

NEWCASTLE, Pa., Jan. 7 .- John Kiuppa, a railroad brakeman here, to-day admitted he had shot and killed Private Fitzgerald in a prison camp outside of Bordeaux, France, as testi-fied by Edwin Duner of San Fran-cisco, before the senate committee invesigating charges that Americans were hanged without trial. In a signed statement Kluppa declared the shooting was entirely accidental, however. He said that in an altercation with three colored prisoners, he took a rifle from the hands of Fitzgerald, who was on sentry duty and forced the prisoners to obey. As he was returning the rifle to Fitzgerald, he says, it exploded, fatally injuring the private. Kluppa says that Duner was in a detention camp 50 feet from the shoot ing and was not concerned in it
