

MUTUAL IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATIONS

WORK TO BE COMPLETED IN EACH OF THE 25 WARDS OF THE STAKE BEFORE THE ANNUAL CONVENTION.

Convention to be Held on Sunday, Sept. 28th—Appointments For Visiting the Various Wards Have Been Made—Other Matters Pertaining to the Work.

The stake board of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Associations of Weber Stake has begun the re-organization work for the coming season. Last Sunday evening the First ward was visited by Asst. Supt. J. V. Bluth and the Second ward by Supt. J. L. Herrick and Aids Joseph Belnap and John Shurtliff. A number of changes were made, the retiring officers being honorably released and the officers selected sustained as follows:

First Ward—D. K. Steele, president; Lorenzo Jackson and Rufus A. Garner, counselors; Jos. E. Evans, secretary and treasurer; Jos. Stephens, librarian; M. Charles Woods, chorister; Ernest Jones, organist.

Second Ward—Alva L. Scoville, president; Robt. E. Wilson and Robt. P. Herrick, counselors; Jesse F. Stephens, secretary and treasurer; Wm. M. Thomas, program secretary; Ashby Boyle, librarian; Matthew Galt, chorister; Willard D. Ellis, organist.

The board met last evening and made the following appointments for visits the following Sunday, August 31st: Hooper, J. W. West; Kaneshville, J. P. Snedaker; Eden, Joseph McFarland; Liberty, T. Y. Stanford; Plain City, J. L. Herrick; West Weber, J. V. Bluth; Warren, W. J. Barnes; Wilson, W. F. Burton; Uintah, Joseph Belnap; Roy, Walter Heller; Riverdale, Heber Scowcroft.

On Sunday, Sept. 7th, the following wards will be visited though the assignments have not yet been made: North Ogden, Mound Fort, Lynne, Slaterville, Marriotts, Pleasant View, Farr West, Harrisville and Huntsville. In each association, the organization will be completed, the former home missionaries honorably released, and four good and efficient men chosen for that important work.

The work of reorganization will be completed in each of the twenty-five associations in the stake before the annual convention which precedes the commencement of association work and which will this time be held Sunday, Sept. 28, at the Ogden Tabernacle, meetings being held at 10 a. m. and at 2 and 7:30 p. m. At this convention mutual improvement topics will be thoroughly discussed, questions pertaining to the work answered and instructions given in accordance with the plans of the general and stake boards. Every officer, (and there are 200) and as many members as desire are asked to attend. The outlook for a successful season is very promising.
