

account of the very heavy business to southwest Nevada, and will be much appreciated by the traveling public.

Mr. James E. Jones of Malad, Ida., spent yesterday in Ogden, the guest of T. C. Mercer. Mr. Jones is one of the prominent citizens of Malad and is identified with the ranching interests of that section. He may figure on some of Ogden's realty in the near future.

The fourth annual ball of the local Cigarmakers' union will be held at the Royal Dancing academy Thursday evening, February 21st.

Judge Howell went to Logan Sunday to attend the funeral of a grandson of Congressman Howell.

T. W. Jones and J. C. Jones, of the Utah Construction company, attended the funeral of C. C. Stiffler, a former resident of Ogden, held in Salt Lake yesterday.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday afternoon to the following: Albert Ingolds, aged 31, of Chicago, and Myrtle Nelson, aged 18, of Brigham City; Parley Taylor, aged 21, and Estella Hodson, aged 18, both of Plain City; W. N. Davis, aged 24, and Nannie Bower, aged 20, both of Roy.

H. B. Foulger and wife returned to Garland yesterday after a short visit with relatives in the city.

J. E. Doolittle, representative of the Rock Island and Frisco lines, was an Ogden visitor yesterday.

George Morgan, proprietor of the Vienna Cafe in Salt Lake, was in Ogden yesterday.

P. S. Wilson has been awarded the contract for doing the cement work in the basement of the old Wright block, purchased by the Boyle Furniture company.

Charles Sherman, former night yardmaster at the Union Pacific, who has been laying off since the 10th on account of the grippe, is convalescing and will probably be able to take up a position with the company again soon.

Richard Pierce has been running the night gang at the U. P. yards for the past ten days, having been an old employe of the company. He has the yard in good shape now and will keep it so if conditions permit.

Ernest Bamberger, general manager of the Daly-West Mining company, passed through Ogden Sunday on his way to Denver.

The Little Daisy Mining company has had a recent assay on some pyrites of copper, which gives them fine returns of 23.50 per cent, making the ore worth something better than $100 per ton. This property adjoins the Louise Mining company's ground on the southeast and claims to have a surface showing that will develop into a paying proposition in big figures with the expenditure of the necessary money. The Louis is having its ore sampled by the new smelter and there are bright promises for Willard Hill in the near future.

H. S. Twining, district superintendent of the Pullman company, spent several hours in Ogden yesterday looking after the local interests of his company.

O. B. Gilson, general manager of the cement works at Croyden, left for New York Sunday night on business connected with the plant.

M. J. Smith, the Union Pacific engineer, is seriously ill at the Ogden General hospital.

R. Gordon Wood, a well known mining engineer of Placerville, Idaho, is in the city on business.

Mrs. Harry Leslie Bracken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brown, is in the city visiting her parents.

Wing B. Allen, formerly with the Salt Lake Tribune, went west Saturday evening after a short visit in Salt Lake City. He is now with the Daily Mining Record of Goldfield.

E. C. Manson, superintendent of the Salt Lake division, left Ogden yesterday on No. 3 for a ten-day inspection trip over his division. He will go as far west as Sparks, Nev.

J. Y. Callahan, general agent of the Nickel-Plate road, with headquarters in Chicago, spent several hours in Ogden yesterday, en route to San Francisco.

A. Q. Zinn left last evening for a tour of inspection of the Nevada mining camps. Mr. Zinn, who is private secretary to the secretary of the interior in the Philippine Islands, formerly resided in Ogden and has been in the city for the past week visiting friends and relatives. He will probably visit Butte and Spokane before returning to Manila.

Paul Falconer, one of the inmates of the State Industrial school, who escaped from that institution Saturday evening, was captured at Echo yesterday. Lee G. Crosby and Ivan Hicks, the two boys who left at the same time, are still at large.

The schools of Ogden will close Friday in honor of Washington's birthday. There will be no program, but the studies on Thursday will be along the line of Washington.

Frank H. Holzheimer, a prominent attorney of Pocatello, Idaho, passed through Ogden on Saturday night on his way home from a business trip out on the coast.

Mrs. W. E. Trapp, wife of a prominent Pocatello, Idaho, business man, came down Saturday evening to visit her daughter, Alwilda, who is a student at the Sacred Heart academy.

Joseph Belnap, a former deputy sheriff of Weber county, but now located at Preston, Idaho, where he is conducting a mercantile business, was in Ogden yesterday, returning last night.

O. W. Paris, a prominent live stock breeder and dealer at Elko, Nevada, is in the city and stopping at the European hotel. He is looking around for realty investments.

Mrs. T. E. Fitzgerald left last evening for Los Angeles, where she goes for the recuperation of her health. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald's home is at American Falls, Idaho, but Mrs. Fitzgerald has been stopping in Ogden for some time with Miss Kate Fitzgerald, having been a sufferer from rheumatism. Her friends all hope for a speedy recovery.

C. P. Jennings of Salt Lake was an Ogden visitor yesterday. He took in the doings at K. of P. hall last evening and looked like he was enjoying himself.

Ogden Lodge No. 2, K. of P., gave a card party and social last evening. The event was purely fraternal, but the commodious hall was filled and a most pleasant time was spent. Cards, refreshments and dancing were indulged in and the crowd went home with smiles on their faces and congratulations for the success of the entertainment.

A. M. Van der Vlies has closed his saloon on Washington avenue and will retire from business. The reason of his action, is that the First National bank is to enlarge its quarters, as stated in the local papers some days ago, and will necessitate the removal of the waterworks office into the room heretofore occupied by Mr. Van der Vlies, and as he cannot secure a renewal of his lease or other suitable quarters, he decided, on Saturday last to close out his business.

The grand mask skating carnival at the Auditorium rink Thursday evening, February 21, promises to be more largely attended than the one held sometime ago. The management has arranged for costumes which will be on exhibition and for rent at the rink commencing Wednesday. To those who missed seeing the previous carnival, this will be a rare treat.

The Weber Stake academy band boys were out last evening to call attention to the fact that Rev. Fleece would exhibit Tissot's pictures of the life of the Saviour at the M. E. church. The boys furnished a number of pieces that attracted considerable attention and drew a number of people to the church. The pictures illustrated the most stirring scenes in the life of Christ, and are certainly worthy of the study of Bible students. The entertainment is given under the auspices of the managers of the Crittenton home, and furnishes a pleasant and profitable evening's entertainment for those who are students or admirers of the story of the Lord Jesus and His followers.

The one mile race last night at the Auditorium between Greenwald, Purce and Lindsay was won by Purce, with Lindsay a close second. Greenwald held second place until the fifth lap, when he fell and Lindsay passed him.

Bee's Laxative Money and Tar the original laxative cough syrup acts as a cathartic on the bowels. It is made from the tar gathered from the pine trees of our own country, therefore is the best for children. It is good for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Try our free offer. Sold by Geo. F. Cave, Cor. 23rd and Wash.

RANDOM REFERENCES

Curtain tonight at 8 o'clock sharp—Olga Nethersole in "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray."

Things are looking exceedingly bright for Ogden the coming spring. Local architects have already received orders for plans for new structures, both in business and resident districts, exceeding a million dollars, and they are still pressed with all the work they can attend to. The residence districts are building up particularly fast.

Grill & Rincker make a specialty of sausages. Central meat market. 2269 Washington.

J. W. James, a prominent mining man of Butte, stopped over in Ogden Saturday on his way to Los Angeles where he goes in the hope of recovering his lost health. He was accompanied by his wife.

E-Z-Money-Kelley—Money to loan on any good real estate. Geo. J. Kelley.—

S. H. Grigsby, a livestock dealer from Woodland, Cal., was in Ogden Saturday on his way to Idaho Falls, Idaho, where he went to purchase a lot of horses and mules, the latter to be used for government work in Honolulu. Mr. Grigsby has a large stock farm at Woodland.

White rags wanted at the Standard office.

The Southern Pacific company announces that effective March 20 they will sell daily round trip tickets from Ogden to Tonopah and Goldfield and return for $50. This rate is given on