

FUNERALS

Funeral services for Mrs Eva Dunbar were held at the Eleventh ward meeting house on July 19 at 1:30 p. m. Mrs Dunbar was the daughter of John K and Alicia Grist, the mother having been prominently identified with the early theatrical efforts of the pioneers in Salt Lake. Mrs Dunbar was a woman of sterling qualities and eloquent tributes were paid by the following speakers: Professor W. W. Henderson of the U. A. C. of Logan, Bishops J. H. Riley, Nathan Tanner, W. E. Newman and Miss Eva Aibon. The speakers dwell upon the numerous virtues possessed by the deceased and referred to her faithful adherence to her religious views. The following musical numbers were furnished: "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" by Wm. S. Wright, "I Know That My Redeemer Lives" and "Face to Face" by Mrs. Mary Farley, "Through Deepening Trials" by Mrs. Hunter. Interment was made in the City cemetery and H. W. Beckett dedicated the grave. The deceased was one of the early pioneers who crossed the plains in 1863. Surviving are her children, Mrs. Gertrude Lewis, Los Angeles, Wm. A. Dunbar, Mrs. Eva Dodt, San Francisco, and Mrs. Lucille Van Dyke, Trenton, Utah, also two sisters, Mrs. Alice Allen, Salt Lake, and Mrs. L. S. Harkness, Arco, Idaho.

Bishop A. B. Foulger conducted services in the Sixth ward Tuesday evening for Mrs. Rosella Ann Jensen. A quartet composed of William S. Wright, Gerard Klomp, William Pickett and Joseph Madison sang "Savior, Comfort Me" and "Lead Us, Dear Savior." William Manning sang "When Roses Bloom" and William S. Wright sang "Through Deepening Trials." Speakers were President Thomas E. McKay, Ambrose P. Merrill, Bishop Foulger and Lester Scoville. The body was sent this morning to Mount Pleasant for interment.

Funeral services for William Spencer McFarland were held Tuesday at the West Weber meeting house, with Bishop George A. Heslop presiding. A quartet composed of Mrs. Nettie Charlton, Mrs. Laura Heslop, Mrs. Ellen Stoker and Mrs. Melba Heacock sang "My Father Knows." A quartet of girls and boys sang "Shine

On." Miss Elsie Gibson sang "On That Lateral Shore." "Beautiful Isle" was sung by Margaret Lih-erington. The speakers were President Joseph Ririe, F. W. Stratford and Bishop Heslop. Interment was in the City cemetery.

Funeral services for Harum Stowe were held Tuesday at 4:30 o'clock in the Eighth ward meeting house, with Bishop W. W. Rawson presiding. "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" and "Unanswered Yell" were sung by Mrs. Jessie Lund and W. J. Brown. "My Father Knows" was sung by Lizzie Norseth. "Hear My Cry, O Lord" was sung by Jessie Lund. Mrs. Dorell Davis sang "I Know My Redeemer Lives." The speakers were Hans Peterson, Bishop W. W. Rawson and David Jensen. Interment in the City cemetery and the grave dedicated by W. W. Rawson.

Funeral services for Dr. Wm. Lloyd Christensen were held Tuesday at 2 o'clock at the Hooper meeting house, with Bishop's Counselor Harum Rigby conducting. The ward choir sang "Through Deepening Trials," "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "Beautiful Isle." Joseph O. Moore sang "Not Half Has Ever Been Told." Mrs. Gladys Simpson and Mrs. Aileen Hanks sang "Gates of Gold." Mrs. Simpson sang "Face to Face." The speakers were Frank M. Beinaap, Wilford Guthrie, J. D. Hooper and Bishop Thomas Read. Interment was made in the Hooper cemetery and the grave dedicated by C. J. A. Lindquist.