GLEN AND JEWEL FURNISS

The Furnisses built a store on Sand Creek, facing the east, just north of Kelley's, and across the street from the big rock house. Having two stores so close did not pay out in a small town, made very keen competition, so Furnisses sold out. The building was used for a family room. It was 25 X 48 feet with a garage in back that had been used for meat cutting. It has since been made into apartments.

Jewell was very active in Idaho Daughters of Pioneers of Ammon, was an officer with Mrs. Joe Fields in 1936-37.

Glen and Jewell rented John Judy's where Kelly's store is now, when he sold out, is when Furnisses moved one block north.

After Glenn died Jewell sold out, the business changed hands 10 times. She became assistant to Hillview Elementary #93. The professor, Miss Saur, a handicapped lady, was over Jewell, and she rose to highest score in School District.

ROYAL CLEMENTS FAMILY

Royal Clements and Lucy Annie Kendall Clements moved to Ammon about 1927 from Teton Basin, where they had had a farm and a sawmill. They were quite old, Royal about 74 and Lucy about 73. One son James Wilford (Jim) was living with them when they came to Ammon. He cared for his mother and father until his death in 1938.

They lived a quiet life in Ammon, coming in the midnight of their lives.

They had a hard and sorrowful life. All who knew them loved and cherished them. They were honest people, true and loyal friends to everyone. Both having great faith and exercising it all through their lives, through manys sicknesses and sorrows. Royal was a jolly, good-natured, easy going, fellow. Quite a contrast to his four foot 6 inches, wife who was an energetic, spirited, person always on the go. There was always company, everyone loved to go to 'Aunt Lucy's and Uncle Royal's', as they were fondly spoken of. No matter what time of day or night, that one went to their home Lucy would prepare a bite to eat and a place to sleep for them.

Royal died January 14, 1943 at the age of 91.

Lucy Annie died March 34, 1940 at the age of 87.

They were in Ammon until 1939 when because of old age and incababilities, they went to Thornton to live with a son, until their deaths.
